“ After viewing the tribute of Uncle Kenneth, it brought back a flood memories when I was growing up as a child practically staying all of my time in the Kentch home. It was an honor and pleasure to have Uncle Kenneth and Aunt Beulah as my family. Much love, Neota.

“ After viewing the tribute of Uncle Kenneth, it brought back so many happy memories as a child practically growing up in the Kentch household. It was an honor and privilege to have these two wonderful as a second family to me. Much love to all of you.

“ Kenneth took me to my first baseball game when I was a kid. He took us to the first Royals playoff game in old Royals stadium. We sat in the next to last row at the top. As we kept climbing the stairs, Kenneth just kept laughing. It was always an adventure loading up in his station wagon, taking off for the ballgame. This was the highlight of my year as a youngster who was in awe of the Royals and the beautiful stadium.

This man arrived to help me when I moved to KC into the dorms my first year of medical school. He took us to a game that week-end also.

Kenneth, you were a jolly, energetic, personable character who was true to his family and his Lord (and his bluegrass music!). He loved that crazy Jerry Reed song "when you're hot, you're hot" I remembered.

We all were blessed to have you Kenneth. You are with our Lord where you were always meant to be. We love you and look forward to flying away to be with you some bright morning!

“ So sorry, Kenneth was a good man and a good friend to Del (Collins). I laugh when I think about the two of them together. Ken would come visit Del during the day. They would talk and visit for awhile, sit awhile and both fall asleep, wake visit awhile longer, then Ken would get up and go home. I will miss this good man. Peace to all of you. Vi Collins
