“ My Sincere condolences to Kim's Family and friends, I met Kim while working as the tooling manager at Riverside KC. there was never a time he wasn't happy to come to work. He shared about his son and grandchild often. He was a joy to be around and I'm praying for healing in the hearts for those that loved him.

“ I am terribly going to miss my brother who has filled my head with so many precious memories. Kim had a heart of gold and to the end gave everything he had to the people's lives he touched. In death he gave of his body so others may have more life. I am sure as he exited stage left his only regret was that he didn't think of something to say to make us laugh. Please smile and think of my brother for the wonderful man he was. He gave his all as a son following his fathers footsteps as a father making some mighty big steps to follow and for me as a brother by just walking besides me. Most will remember him as the man they knew as an Adult at work but for me big brother was the one who built me the mega train sets , or impressed my little friends with a burn out in Road Runner and all the talks on how will the Packers win next. I will truly miss you Kim!
