

Kyle Joseph Weiler

May 18, 1988 - July 27, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved son and brother, Kyle Joseph Weiler. Kyle was born on May 18th, 1988 to Joseph Weiler Jr. and Rebecca Lukinac. He left this world in his home of Kansas City, Kansas on July 27th, 2025. Kyle was a beautiful, sensitive soul with a big heart and a love of music, books, and art. He had a silly sense of humor and made us laugh all the time with his funny nicknames and mannerisms. We loved sitting around with him joking, telling stories, and pondering deep subjects. Kyle played the guitar and enjoyed boxing in his younger years. He loved talking and playing with his niece and three nephews and looked forward to their return to America from Australia. Kyle didn't shy away from tough subjects and was always willing to explore faith and his purpose here on earth. He was an avid reader, with a fascination with history and humanity. Kyle was baptized at St. Patrick's church and desired very much to have a relationship with God, always exploring theology and philosophy. We know now that Kyle is at peace after many years of struggle. He left a mark on this world and our hearts, and is now at rest in eternal Glory with his Creator. Although his life went too fast, too soon, we are comforted knowing his burden has been laid down and he is free at last. He will be deeply missed by his friends and family. We love you Kyle.

Kyle leaves behind his mother, father, siblings, brother-in-law, and niece and nephews: Rebecca Lukinac, Joseph Weiler Jr, Jessica Sharman (Weiler), Dylon Sanders, Michael Sharman, Zoey Sharman, Jackson Sharman,

Theodore Sharman, and Patrick Sharman.
