

Lana Letha Kathleen Corbett

October 15, 1966 - March 27, 2026

Lana Letha Kathleen Corbett, 59, of Kansas City, Kansas, passed away March 27, 2026, at Kansas City Hospice House. She was born on October 15, 1966, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Jackie Lee Pagett-Hollingsworth, who preceded her in death. Lana had a free spirit and a love for going wherever life took her. She enjoyed traveling, spending time on motorcycle rides with her partner, Lonnie, and listening to music, especially live concerts. She was someone who valued experiences and made the most of her time doing what she enjoyed. More than anything, Lana loved her family. She especially cherished being “Nana” to her grandchildren and the time she spent with them. She also shared a special bond with her beloved dog, Willie G, affectionately known as “Big Stuff,” who meant the world to her.

She is survived by her children, Stormy Buchanan and Patrick Rodriguez, Jr.; her partner, Lonnie Kelley; her grandchildren, Triniti Buchanan, Brooklyn Buchanan, and Journi Hinton; her siblings, Winn Corbett, Randy Manning, and Sherri Small; her nephew, Ken Manning and his wife, Jodi Manning; her great-niece, Stormi Rose Manning; and her nieces, Sarah Evans and Amber Narramore.

“ Lana was the love of my life, she was a great lady who never disliked anybody. She also loved her Kansas City Cheifs, she was able to attend a game at Arrowhead in 2024. She win tickets through her work, American dish. Was my biggest joy to see how excited she was. We also took a trip to Arkansas to ride the pig trail and thought that was awesome. I love you Lana and I miss you so much. We will be together again someday. Until then remember I'll always love you myBabygirl
