“ My brother Larry, had a heart as big as all outdoors. It was not unusual for him to just stop by my home and be all dressed up in his meticulous suit, knock on my door and hand me a gift he had picked up for me, just because. He had a heart as big as all outdoors. He was one of the funniest people I have ever known. So witty and a real comedian. Plus, he had a real professional voice and could stand on stage and keep the whole audience captivated. His range of notes was all over the place. From the highest notes to the lowest one. Such talent. He sang at his Baptist church he attended and he Loved the Lord and his Faith was strong. He left a CD of his wonderful songs. My favorite was called, My Prayer. When our oldest brother, Leonard (Sonny) passed and before his ashes were sprinkled on their final resting place, Larry lead us in prayer, at my house, as we sat around our brothers container of ashes. He also, lead us in prayer and said the final words over our sister Kaye. And, sang a farewell song with all his sisters at her funeral. See you later, Larry. I will love you forever.
