This is a fitting and beautiful tribute to my loving and most wonderful brother Larry. His life was so full of love and giving. Larry was a faithful and spiritually powerful man. I feel so incredibly blest to have him as my brother. To know we share the same love and faith makes his passing easier yet he is, and will be, terribly missed by all of us left here to soldier on until we meet again in the next life.

Larry taught and is still teaching me how important family is and how much we have to share with each. The simple joy of knowing he is my brother now and forever is such a blessing.

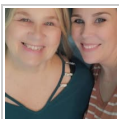

His dear and most sweet wife, Lois was such a huge part of who Larry became in this life. She deserved this beautiful man and she honored him always and will love him, like all of us who had the great blessing of knowing him, forever. Larry loved Lois and all of us his great family and friends, with his whole heart and never gave half measures. My heart is so full of joy to see his beautiful and loving children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He has touched all of us in ways we can only begin to understand with his passing. He taught us, as Jesus has taught us, to love one another and always forgive as we have all been forgiven of our many mistakes and errors in judgement. Thank you dear Lord for sending this amazing soul into our lives and thank you for taking him home to share in your blazing glory that shines forth and lights our dark world.

Larry is, and always has been, an angel of the light. Our dear mother, Grace Hardeman must be so happy to have him home safe with her. She taught him, and all 10 of her children, to love & serve our Lord and Master and it is, without a doubt, a jubilant day for our heavenly family to receive one of it's most kind and loving spirits home for eternity.

Until I see you on the other side brother I stand proud to know I was chosen to be your little sister, Linda Marie Hardeman.

“ My heart goes out to the Hardeman family. It is amazing that growing up with Charlene, the number of times, Mr. Hardeman took the time to stop and say hello to me, or ask me how I was doing. I am grateful to have known him. I could go on about his character, but that is for others to do; just know that he had to be a special father. His children are wonderful people and Charlene is a great friend of mine to this day. Sending love to the rest of the family and prayers for you all. (Eddie Gunter, Jr)

Larry was the first person to talk to me & offer a place to sit at lunch when I first started at the USPS, myself, Larry Hardeman, Ray Palmer, Jim Truman & Rick Hunt!! They took me under their wings & were the best friends & company for 16 years!! Larry was the kindest person I've ever had the pleasure of knowing!! Thank you Larry!! May you now rest in peace , you will be missed!!
