“ Our family just won't be the same without you grandpa. Let's face it, we all know that you are a talker and it's just so much quieter without your voice, I don't like it. You were the glue that held us together in times of crisis and you were always there for any of us if we needed. We've been singing together for years and that joy we shared for singing is just not there right now. Friday night Karaoke nights just won't be the same. :(I hope I can get that back one day and carry on the tradition <3 You should see your great grandsons down here trying to sing for you, it's still to be determined if either one can carry a tune :). It saddens me that Ayden and Ethan may not truly remember just how special you were to them and how much you loved them, but are blessed to have known you for the first, most important years of their lives. Heather and I were so lucky to have a grandpa like you! I love you so much! We all love you! I am happy you are safe and reunited with your brother and parents right now and looking down on us but would give anything to have even just one more moment with you so there would be no doubt just how special you were to all of us. <3

“ Papa you are one of the greatest men I know!! I love you so very much and am thankful for the many years I have been able to share with you. I thank God everyday for giving me the greatest Grandpa ever and I thank you everyday for sharing your home with Ethan and I and supporting me through my school. I don't think that there is another one like you and I don't think there is one person who has ever met you that did not love your stories and your outgoing personality. I sure am going to miss seeing your face everyday in this home. Rest in Peace my sweet Grandpa! ”
