“ Among my fondest memories are those we spent together in the outdoors. It was our shared passion. Where did the time go? How did life go by so fast?! If I could turn back time for just one day, I would spend it with you on a trout stream, in The Rocky Mountains. Watching you make those effortless, graceful casts. It would not matter if you caught anything (you would release it anyway). At the end of the day, in the view of the sunset, we would rest on the tailgate, and you would sing a little song or tell one of your ornery jokes.

I will miss you Dad.

I still miss you everyday. Your songs, your intellect , your way of making me laugh, those blue eyes and big smile , your voice when I came in the door saying . (Is that my honey?) you by my side for so many years. Love never dies.

“ Sharing Peanuts at the Ole Municipal Ball Park - listening to his limericks and laughing until I couldn't breath. Admiring his 56 Chevy Convertible - Loving the music of Rock & Roll - the Blues and Soul sounds. Loving his St Louis Cardinal Baseball outfits - Seeing pictures of him digging out from snow storms at Macks Creek. Treating Voggie like he was part of the family. Most of all - he always made me laugh. You will be missed my friend.
