“ We never know when and why God calls our loved ones home...for my dear Sister Linda your mission here is complete. Maybe you will be in charge of putting together one large meal for when we have all completed our mission here on earth.

I cherish the cookbook you compiled for me 41 years ago when I got married and did not know how to cook anything. I cherish the memories of the week you came and stayed with Keith and I when we became parents for the first time and you made “lists and charts” and showed us that “we could do this” because you made it so easy. I have never known anyone that could open kitchen cabinets and combine this and that to prepare a delicious meal for any amount of people that might just “show up” like you could do. Many times I have shared with my friends and my kids - that I don’t think you ever had to use a cookbook! You could create a meal from anything you had on hand. I so admired that about you! Thank you for living your life by God’s standards as an example for us all. Until we meet again in Heaven, watch over us all my dear Sister.
