I have learned so much about an amazing woman from watching this. I never had the pleasure of meeting Ms. Linda in person but I do know her wonderful daughter Denise. And she is the most loving, caring and beautiful friend anyone could have. I am truly moved by looking at all the love shared with, to and in Ms. Linda. I see so much joy around her. I pray peace in the hearts of the family.

With my sincere condolences

“ I always loved her hands. They showed the evidence of a life well lived. A life well loved. She was a wonderful woman who loved her children fiercely. She will be missed. Fly high Linda. Somewhere out there is an angel choir singing Greased Lightning just to make you laugh.

“ Linda was a great person & woman, too young to be gone. She was the best mom & grandma, always there for Eric & Denise. She loved them with all her heart & soul, she was a dedicated to them always. She had went through so much in her life but never gave up on raising Eric & Denise. Now Eric ,& Denise are grown ups & are doing so great in their adulthood. Linda also loved her three grandchildren, doted on them as much as possible they will miss Grandma so much. RIP Linda, you will be missed by all. ❤️❤️❤️
