

Lloyd Edward Segrist

June 16, 1956 - July 19, 2024

Lloyd Edward Segrist, 68, of Kansas City, Missouri, passed away on July 19, 2024, at Northland Rehabilitation and Health Care. Born on June 16, 1956, in Smithville, Missouri, he was the son of Francis and Anne Segrist. Lloyd was a dedicated scholar of his family's Scottish heritage and had a deep fascination with Scottish military traditions. He delighted in collecting and restoring antiques, including phones, lamps, fountain pens, and knives. Lloyd was an excellent cook and enjoyed making meals for family and friends, cheesecake was his specialty. A man of faith, family was important to him. Lloyd valued his relationships deeply, especially with his stepbrother Roger Ensley and wife Kathy, and their children, Jonathan and Christopher Ensley and their families who survive him in his passing. The family plans to hold a private graveside service to honor Lloyd's life and memory at a later date.
