“ Gary, so sad to just hear about Louise. I'm mostly kind of a recluse these days. I'd like to get together sometime. I always associate her big grin and happy disposition when I think of her!

“ Louise and I taught at Oak Grove together for several years. When I was the clueless new kid on the block she was so helpful. She would help me with names at staff meetings, she encouraged me when I was feeling like I had forgotten how to teach. I will always be grateful for her care and encouragement.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. I met Louise in kindergarten and we walked to school everyday. Later, I moved in next door to Her mom and aunt. Wonderful caring family.

Gary, Matt, Liz and family, I am so sorry for all of you. Your Mom was a very special person, always a kind spirit. I have many fond memories... She seemed very strong in faith, so I am sure she is at blessed peace.
