“ Meeting Loyd & Cynthia at physical therapy during our loss of independence & health crisis right after hardest moments of all our lives, gave us a lifetime connection. Loyd was genuinely interested in what made people tick, he cared about how our lives were, who we were & are. Smart, compassionate & funny, he sparkled. And Loyd deeply loved Cynthia. I'm so glad I got to Visit with them once he became home bound & a ramp was donated & built. Being able to go see them in my wheelchair, will always be happy memories. Love you milady! Hugs from our little family.
