Sue was born on May 15, 1938 to Carlos and Maude Rocha in Kansas City, Kansas.

On October 1, 1951 she married the true love of her life, Jim Dugan in Jasper, Arkansas. Together they built a wonderful life, full of love and laughter. Their children feel blessed to be a part of their love story.

Sue had a love for Keno, always playing her lucky numbers of 1, 11, 21, 31 and 41. She was also a worrier and a planner, who enjoyed cooking for her family and knew how to make everyone's favorite dish.

She will be missed beyond words, and to say the lives of those closest to her will be less bright without her is an understatement. Her life has been full of unconditional love for her family and friends for which they all will be forever grateful.

She is preceded in death by her parents, 3 brothers; Carl, Johnny & Bobby Rocha and 1 granddaughter, Alexis Page.
