“ Grandma Parrish was a matriarch of our family. She was my only contact with the rest of the Parrishs after Mom amd Dad took us to Phoenix. We didn't have a lot in common but I wish we did. Our only common ground is our decision to follow Christ. A wiseman knows everything, a shrewd man knows everyone. Grandma was both and was ready for adulthood at sixteen years old. She was very pragmatic and I wish she had not died the way she did. I wish I could have spoken to her one more time. I hope God lets her know how I'm feeling.

“ I was just a kid during most of my memories of Sister Marie. But, I do remember that every time she spoke up in church it was almost always for someone else. Prayer requests for those she knew and cared for, supporting the church, and she loved her Pastor, my Dad. Tammy, Amanda, and Heather, we havent stayed in touch over the years but I love you guys, have many fond memories, and am praying for you. <3
