“ Aunt Mabel,

Forgive me for not writing any tribute until now. I guess I was in a temporary state of mind that this could even happen. It is hard for me to put into words how much I miss you. I thought of you often this Christmas, especially of your SPECIAL WREATH you hung on your door every year. It was difficult for me to ring in the New Year without calling you and hearing you say Happy New Year before I do. I'll never forget the way you taught me how to deal and play cards. You were always there for me with a kind and wise word when I needed someone to talk to after Dad and Mom passed. I do think of Jackie often. I know how it feels to be an only child and loose your parents-no matter what the age. I thank you for being my aunt and friend. I miss you dearly and think of you often.

*God Bless You,
Sandra Dale*
