She was one of a kind. I met her nearly 20 years ago. She lived next door and sold us our home. She loved her son, Jerry..Jay, more than anything in the world. She treated Tracy like her own. Claude and I enjoyed time with her. She loved a good laugh. RIP Margaret. You will be sorely missed. Love you, Jay and Tracy. God will keep you in this time of grief. Gosh Jay looks just like her.

Although I didn't actually meet Margaret, I saw her a few times and I know how much Jay thought of his Mom. He does resemble her a lot. Thoughts and prayers to Tracy, Jay and related families. I know this one left a deep hole to Jay's heart. I am glad she had a nice Thanksgiving with family and friends. She appears to have left peacefully.
