“ It will take a while to accept Margie's time on earth is now over. However it is comforting knowing she is now with her mother who she missed so very much. My mom was sweet and funny she worked real hard and provided for me as I grew up. I am so thankful for our time together the last 4 years even the days that were a bit trying it was all part of how special she really was. I will miss my mommy Margie Rae!

“ It is very difficult to grasp that my mom is gone. She has always been there for me- a phone call away. I will miss her smile, her humor. I will not be absent of her presence as she will always be looking down on all her family- her and my Grandma. Kathy

Well said. Margie(sounds strange to me because I always called her Mama San) an Asian term of respect. She made me feel like part of the family and we were great friends. I have missed terribly the past two yrs. She has always been in my prayers and was a loving, sweet Christian. God Bless I will miss you Mama San. Love, Judy Hendrix.

“ When my mother passed away on Sunday I was the one who was with her. My prayer was that I could be there when the time came so she would not have to die alone, that she would not pass until her grand daughter Chelle Bain got here from Florida, and all of her family would make it up there before she passed away. I am blessed and the Lord answered all of my prayers. For those of you who may be feeling sad let me tell you this. I read to her bible verses from the daily devotional that a dear friend gave to me on my birthday the day before. I covered everyone's birthdays. After I read the bible verses, I told her, it is ok mom, you can go home. Everyone has made it up to say goodbye and we are going to be ok. With that I read one more verse and she peacefully took her last breath. There was no pain, just peace, love, I felt heaven open up for her and I know she saw the Lord Jesus waiting for her with his arms wide open. I thank the Lord above for letting me bring my mom comfort in her passing, and for filling the whole family with an abundance of peace and comfort that she made it to the other side and will wait until we join her there one day. My mom was one of the most hardest working woman I have ever known, as she was for the most part a single mom. I believe the one thing that meant the most to her besides her relationship with the Lord, and that was her endless LOVE she had for her family. I am blessed to be her daughter, I will miss her the rest of my life, but I am a Christian so the good news is I WILL SEE HER AGAIN ONE DAY. RIP Mom, Love Becky
