“ It's only been a week since your passing, but in my heart you will always be there. Time may heal the hurt, but not the missing you. I will miss you dearly mama. The love you shared will be timeless in the hearts of those you touched. You are now at peace and with daddy. May God Bless your heart. Your Loving Son, Bob

“ My condolences to the family. I remember Genevieve's sweet spirit and how much she appreciated my visits both at Sweet Life and her former apartment off Metcalf and 83rd street.. I have two of her smaller paintings in my home. Our friendship began at Shawnee United Methodist Church and I remember her as a fellow member of the Keystone Sunday School Class and the the Chancel Choir.

“ Genevieve was a great lady. We have several of her paintings in our home. One of them we commissioned after she noticed a China warrior in our home. She was one of the artists in our home during the Blue Valley Art Tour of homes a number of years ago.
