“ The Crawley family came to pastor our church in Galesburg, IL in the late 40's. I'll always remember Louise and her brother Don. Then Dickie came along later. Louise also had a beautiful voice and always full of cheer with a smile. God honored her and Ed with a wonderful ministry.

“ Sister Vance was one of the most beautiful persons I ever knew. She always had a smile and greeted you with Lord's love. She was a great prayer warrior and would always pray with you or for you whatever the need was. She will be greatly missed by all.
