“ I was so glad to become her grandson and I was glad to have known Grandma Marie for 47 years before she died in several or so months later in 2012. She told me on the phone that she wanted to see me again, so I had talk with my dad (her son) and he said yes and him, my step-mother and myself packed our bags and made a trip to Kansas City Kansas leaving Dallas Texas. When we go there, we were told that Grandma Marie died and we went to the Funeral home and there she was in the casket. I know she couldn't hear me but I told her I tried to hurry so you can see me again grandma, but I was too late! It was an honor and a pleasure to be a Paul Bearer at her Funeral! I dearly loved her to pieces and I always will!!
Thank you Grandma Marie for the good times we shared with one another!
I still love you with all of my heart!
I'm not going to say good bye again grandma cause I know for a fact I'll see you soon again and forever we will be together again in Heaven!
Love always,
Stanley Abercrombie,
Your grandson :)
