“ I had the privilege of knowing Marilyn in her final days as a volunteer through hospice. She was full of life to the end; always easy to smile and loved to laugh. I'll miss her little sayings "hanging on with both of my thumbs" and hearing about how she had to stay off the streets at night (jokingly of course). I watched more old movies with her that I had never seen, but she knew them all. I'm so glad I got to be a part of her life, if only for a little while. She was a blessing to us all.
