

Mario Serecero

November 19, 1941 - May 1, 2020

Mario Serecero, 78, of Kansas City, Kansas, passed away on May 1, 2020, in Zacatepec, Morelos, Mexico. He was born on November 19, 1941, in Cuernavaca, Mexico. On January 3, 1970, he married Paulette, and together they shared 50 years of love, partnership, and family. He lived in Chicago, Illinois for 2 years before residing in Kansas City, KS for 50 years. He worked as a Welder for 30 years at various companies in the Kansas City Area. He received his naturalized citizenship on September 29, 2011.

Mario enjoyed the simple pleasures that brought him peace—fishing on quiet mornings, watching football, soccer, and reading about the history he loved so much. Above all, he cherished his family.

He is survived by his wife, Paulette; children, Felissa Hollenbeck (Braeson) and Matthew Serecero (Martina); grandchildren, Sarah Trimble(Michael) Nathaniel McBreairty, Kristopher Serecero, Maia Hollenbeck(Ethan Jones), Selena McBreairty, Braeson Hollenbeck(Savanna), and Mateo Serecero; and great-grandchildren, Kristopher Serecero II, Daisy Trimble, Dante Trimble, Barret Trimble, Ripley Trimble, and a host of loving relatives and friends.

A celebration of his life will be held at 10:00 AM on Saturday, November 29, 2025, at Maple Hill Funeral Home.

“ Mario part of our family back in zacatepec he grew up around us. I can remember when he got married to Paulette the wedding and they took a ride to see her grandma. I have many great memories of him we got together going to the lake go fishing. Hunting we would go every Friday night to the dog races at the woodland there was also a time when along with my brother Bill and Mario we get together and to bowling on Fridays. I can go on and on he would go on vacation to zacatepec as often as he could he would always text me when he was on his way. I missed my friend Mario alit
