“ Watching the video and seeing that first picture of Marge, Virg and the family is exactly how I remember all of you. Coming back to Kansas every year for vacation was always special and the times that we had on the farm are among my favorite memories and part of those memories are Marge and Virg and camping on the "island" and going for rides on the pontoon boat. Marge was such a godsend when dad passed away and she came and spent time with mom and helped her out.

Marge was always so much fun to be around and had such a cheerful personality and from her pictures it looks like she kept that to the end. I'm sorry for your loss but know that you have a lot of wonderful memories of her and your lives together.
