

Marjorie Louise Williams

May 24, 1940 - June 8, 2024

Marjorie Louise "Granny" Williams, 84, of Mission, Kansas (formerly of Emporia), passed away on June 8, 2024. She was born on May 24, 1940, to Hugh and Addie (Newport) Willis. Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband of 55 years, Oliver Williams, sons Rodger and Kenneth Williams, grandson John Yoakum, and sister Mildred Simpson.

Marjorie, known affectionately as "Granny," was a hardworking individual who, together with her husband, owned and operated Mid-America Electric in Emporia for over 30 years before both retired in 2012. In addition to her successful career, Marjorie had a variety of hobbies that brought her happiness, including gardening, sewing, cooking, and puzzles. She enjoyed family gatherings and was particularly fond of hosting holiday celebrations. In her later years, she found joy in socializing and playing games with friends in her apartment community.

Marjorie will be deeply missed by her daughter, Sue Yoakum (David) of Shawnee, her daughter-in-law, Jolene Williams of Lebo, her sister, Carol Jean Smith of Frontenac, her grandchildren Lisa (Andy) Call of Basehor, Kyle Williams of Emporia, Sam (Kaitlyn) Yoakum of Mission, Katie Yoakum of Mission, Shelby Williams of Lebo, Diane Williams of Kansas City and Elizabeth Williams of Baldwin City, her great-grandchildren, and many loving friends.

A graveside service to honor and celebrate Marjorie's life will be held on Tuesday, June 18, 2024, at 10:30 am at Chicago Mound Cemetery in Neosho Rapids, Kansas.
