“ Little Brother,

At 35k feet right now... You would have loved the sight last night of all your buddies pulling up on their bikes. It was a sight to behold. The visitation was a scene right out of the Sopranos and I know it would have made you chuckle like it always did on TV. I don't know what to say, I am at loss for words and still can't believe that it is true. It steals my breath every time I think about it. Our baby brother is in heaven now. Stops me cold. Seeing you again will bring me great joy. We can have a great laugh like we always did, chat about movies of the guido variety and make jokes about the Departed. Funny how that word resonated with me so much over these past few days as I heard it said again, and again, and again... One of OUR favorite movies... The Departed. Man I miss you already Vato. Don't Stop Believin', Mark...

We love you.

“ Prayers and condolences to the entire Vega family. I knew Mark from church and I worked with Lindsey at Paper Warehouse years back. I remember Mark coming to the store to either bring Lindsey lunch or treat her to a lunch date. Both of their faces would light up when their eyes connected.

My Mother, Margaret Aguilar, and I were unable to make it to Mark's services due to her surgery but all of you will continue to be in our prayers during this difficult time.

“ No words will ever express just how much Mark meant to us and how much we will miss him. I don't know a person he ever met that didn't like him. He was always so funny, so kind and just so wonderful to be around. Almost every memory we have, it seems like he was always there... He has left a huge void in our lives and he will be greatly missed :(

Its still so hard to believe cuz. I won't see you and Roman sitting in the back of church every Sunday. We didn't always see each other that often aside from Church on Sunday, but we always talked about how we should do more as a family. I'm sorry its too late for that, but I always knew you had my back and were looking out for me, b/c you did a few times. And now I hope you continue to look out for me from Above. But more importantly I know you'll be looking out for Roman and your parents and pls be sure to look in on my grandma and grandpa now and again, like you always did when you were here. We'll miss you! Love you cuz!
