

Mark Joseph Wilson

November 18, 1959 - January 4, 2019

Mark Joseph Wilson, 59, of Lawrence, KS passed away Friday, January 4, 2019, in Perry, KS.

Mark was born November 18, 1959, the son of J. Frank and Nancy (Hart) Wilson in Kansas City, KS. He graduated from Turner High School in 1978. Mark had many skills, which he used in the construction industry and later went on to study Heavy Equipment Operations at North Central Kansas Technical College. Mark enjoyed many hobbies. In his younger years, Mark competed in saddle bronc riding at rodeos. He also did farrier work shoeing horses as well as blacksmith demonstrations. His life long love of the railroad led him to collect and build model railroads; as well as volunteering at Midland Railway in Baldwin City, Kansas. Mark knew laughter was the best kind of medicine and had a genuine spirit that found the humor in everything.

Mark was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Joy Wilson. He is survived by one son, Joel Wilson; two daughters, Shelby Wilson and Angel Wilson; three brothers, Jim, John, and Bill Wilson; and four sisters, Nancy Ann Crenshaw, Cindy Roberts, Celia Wilson, and Mary Wilson.

“ I'm so sorry to learn of Mark's accident. I have only good memories of Mark all through school. He was a kind and funny guy. I'm so glad we got to visit at a class reunion in 2008, the only one he attended. He was messing with me "Do you know who I am? You've known me since kindergarten?" Of course the beard threw me but his eyes were those of the Mark I'd known since 1965. Mischievous and ornery. I'm attaching a photo that I took of him. Prayers for the family. Donna (Lehman) Krum.
