

Marlin Scott Gross

November 16, 1940 - November 15, 2023

Marlin Scott Gross, affectionately known as "Pete" passed away in the early hours of Wednesday, November 15, 2023, at the age of 82. Born on November 16, 1940, to Marlin Roscoe Gross and Nellie (Fisher) Malishewski. Pete's life was marked by a passion for hunting quail and pheasant in his youth. Following his graduation from Lee's Summit High School, he proudly served an 8-year term in the US Navy.

In his later years, Pete found joy in tinkering with his Dodge and Chrysler cars and avidly following NASCAR races. Together with his significant other, Linda, he experienced the thrill of attending events such as the Daytona 500, Talladega, Bristol, Texas and Kansas Speedways.

Preceded in death by both of his parents, Pete is survived by his devoted partner of 35 years, Linda M. Grafel, as well as his sons Lance and Scott Gross, daughter Deonna Olshock, five grandchildren, and a host of cherished friends.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are kindly requested for St. Jude Children's Hospital, Veteran Community Project, or Carousel Pediatric Care at Kansas City Hospice and Palliative Care.

“ Pete helped me on many of my Dodge and Plymouth projects.

Always enjoyed seeing him and his Dad.

Twenty-sixth street brings good memories.
