“ Hello Linda and Family:

Thank you so much for including me with your family during this difficult time.

For me, I do not think all of this has sunk in yet.

Carol and I have been friends since I was 15. We used to kid around about attending seperate high schools together. We went to seperate schools of course; I lived in Missouri and she lived in Kansas. As the years rolled on, we stayed close. I am so happy to have had her as my friend. She was the kind of person that would do anything possible to help in a time of need and I would do the same for her.

We are still all together. I will never forget her and always love her.

Linda, I hope we can stay in touch with each other and see each other as time permits.

You must realize I of course see Carol in you.

Sincerely,

“ I did not know Mary very well, but I knew her daughter. She was my best friend for many years. On May 4th, 2013 both mother and daughter, along with their cherished companions in life, their beloved spouses, will be reunited again.

I want to share something I wrote about Carol on her Facebook page shortly after hearing about her passing. My feelings and hopes for a blissful afterlife are also wished for all of the Ingold/Vonck family who have passed. My heartfelt condolences go out to Linda Campbell and family, as well as to Yvonne Lemons and her family.

This what I wrote on Carol's Facebook page:

I've known and loved Carol for over forty-two years. After all of that time, I still find it very difficult to grasp how tenuous is that hold we have on life, and how brief the time we have with those we cherish most. We live our lives each day denying the fact that we are just visitors here for such a short time; clinging to this existence by such uncertain threads. When inevitable Fate comes to cut that final strand which anchors us to this Earth, I hope each of us can remember to celebrate the short time we spent together with each other in joy, and then look forward to being reunited with our loved ones, in another life, where death has no sting and yields no power to ever separate us again.

Rest in Peace. May angels watch over and attend you forevermore.

*Love You Always,
Buddy*

“ As a little kid I can remember going over to Mary & Alfred's house on a Sunday afternoon to play games with Linda & Carol while the parents played Pitch. Those are the great memories I have of Mary & Alfred along with Linda & Carol. I am sure they are all playing Pitch in Heaven. Love Linda Ladd
