“ I knew Mary through her son Mike and she was a kind and beautiful soul. She always had a kind word for a young man trying to find his way in the world and she always, always, offered me food whenever I would walk through the door of her home. I have not seen Mary in about 3 decades but I spoke of her often to friend through the years. She was one of th fondest memories of my youth and early adult hood and she will be missed. Pleasant journey, Mrs. Mejia.
