“Mrs. Wing, the School Secretary, was the first person who greeted me in November, 1971, when Ms. Vera Croskey, the Director of Elementary Education for the Kansas City, Ks U.S. D. #500, brought me, the first African American teacher, to Noble Prentis to teach third grade. Upon our arrival Mrs. Wing called into the office of Mr. James Thornton, Principal, who had been notified of my assignment, He came out to greet me and Ms. Croskey with a smile. Mrs. Wing, Mr. Thornton and Rev. Taylor, the Custodian, became my best friends at Noble Prentis. This was a challenging time with this class and the parents due to the transition of teachers just two months after the beginning of the school year. Mrs. Wing helped me to become fully acquainted with the families and develop relationships with them. How very grateful I will always be for her assistance, kindness, support and understanding that she so freely gave to me during my stay at Noble Prentis. She helped to make my days successful and I thank the Lord for her memory. Rest in Peace Mrs. Wing.

Sincerely,
Valera Dixon (Jefferson)

Mrs. Dixon you became one of my most beloved teachers. I remember 3rd grade with such joy because of you. Up until a few years ago, I had the angel wings you made for four of us students when we stood in the picture frame and performed Hark the Herald Angels Sing in our Christmas program. Though I am still very shy, you helped instill a strong sense of confidence and achievement. I am blessed you were my teacher at Noble Prentis.

Valera - Thank you so much for sharing your story. We know that Mom did many things like this, but this makes me so proud.

“ I have such fond memories of Mrs. Wing. She was the best school secretary during my grade school days at Noble Prentis and then she moved up to JC Harmon High school that many of us from grade school attended. She was always so caring and took such great care of us. She obviously had an impact on me as I am now a school secretary. My hope is to be someone special to many kids as she was to so many of us growing up. There is a special desk in heaven for our dear Mrs. Wing. <3

“ Becky & Beth, I heard your mother sing for the first time as a youngster at Noble Prentis during a Christmas program. She had the most amazing voice and I've thought of that day and her singing to us numerous times over the years during the holiday season. My deepest sympathy to you and your families.
