“ As this world became dim and he stepped upon that shore
It was to his amazement that he felt young and strong once more.
He walked carefully at first until he realized no pain
Then he started praising God for he was not the same.

As he walked closer to that city, he saw a huge gate
And he heard a voice say come in Brother Max...you don't have to wait.

You spent your life in service always putting yourself last
Now you will be first...finished is your earthly task.

As he looked upon the beauty of that city bright and fair
He realized he'd made it...he was finally there.
Then he heard a voice he knew...familiar in it's tone
His heart leapt for joy as he heard "My Child Welcome Home!!!"

To Brother Max...we will miss you greatly...but only for a little while.

I'm praying for you all. Debbie Garrison

“ I have only know this man for a short 4 years.... But he touched me more in that time than could ever be expressed. The thing i loved most about him is he was truly ON FIRE for God!!!! My fondest memory is the day i found out he stuffs return envelopes (no postage needed) with christian tracts and mails them out, i asked him why and he said " you never know who is gonna open them, and this might be what they need to come to the Lord"! He will truly be missed but i know in my heart he has heard those words he has waited for all his life " Well done my good and faithful servant"..... God Speed Grandpa.... I love you and will miss you with all that i am.....
Love Always BB
