“ Mike, your son Travis was my best friend in high school, and I had a great time growing up with your family. After I graduated, my parents and brother lived next door to you for many years, so I got to know you very well over 20 years. You were always friendly, jovial, and fun to be around. Know that you will be dearly missed my many people. -Ryan Cooley

“ Mike this is still so unreal. Wish I would've known how much pain you were in but I don't think anyone could've known. You were always worried about making others feel good and trying to comfort everyone else. Whether good times or sad times, you always had that big beautiful smile, a big hug, and always not just a goodbye but a "love you" whenever we seen you. I know you were a believer and God seen how much you put others before yourself and that you're finally at peace in His arms. Never goodbye so til we meet again in Heaven for eternity. Much love Grandpa Harley and many prayers for all your loved ones...

“ Mike, it's surreal to think you are no longer more than just a phone call away. So many memories I carry of the times we spent talking and laughing together. I miss you but you will live forever in my heart and my memories. I am sorry I wasn't there when you needed me the most.
