“ I am so sorry to learn of Michael's passing. He spent his whole life caring for his family and putting family members first. All he knew was work. His uncle Roger enjoyed fishing with him many times. I am sure that he is being welcomed by his mother and dad, along with his grandmother and Roger in Heaven. A young life cut short. Rest in peace, Mike, you deserve it! Aunt Judy

“ Mike and i have worked together side by side putting up many orders. When we closed at Apple Market and i moved to Price Chopper i went directly to the Director and requested to get mike on. He is such a hard worker. He excelled in every role he was put in. It hit me pretty hard yesterday just thinking about not having him around anymore. R.I.P. I used to kid him everyday telling him it was always his fault never mine. He laughed every time. Thank You mike for all your hard work.

“ Michael I'm sorry we didn't get a chance to spend some growing up time together. I remember how sweet and nice you were and I remember mom telling me you worked at the grocery store for many years cos she said you came up to her and talked for a minute. God bless you cuz and may you rest in peace. Tell my mom hi!
