“ I met Mike the summer of 2017. I was new to the area to start over with a rough start. My mom was just diagnosed with inoperable lung cancer that spring and cataracts had taken a better part of my vision in both eyes. It wasn't til closer to the holidays that I ever got to put a face to his name. He was always their for me when i needed comfort and support. He was my closest friend...my best friend. God blessed me when he brought Mike into my life. I love u sweets and will forever miss u
