“ Dearest Charlene, Ted, Carol, and family, there truly are no words to express my sympathy for you as you've been asked to walk the painful road of an early goodbye. I have always felt like family and regarded Mike as an older brother figure and treasured friend. You are in my prayers. May the Lord wrap His arms around you and fill your hearts with peace. I know Mike's memory will live on in our hearts forever.

With Love, Teri

“ My first encounter with Mike Yulich was on the school bus in 2nd grade. I got on the bus and I heard a bunch of commotion coming from the back of the bus. Then I saw him. There was Mike playing his Kazoo with all the kids around him laughing and having a great time. That was Mike. If he was there, you were going to have fun! Mike was full of life, love, and laughter. There are so many memories. He was loved and will be missed by many.

“ *Michael was a very special person who loved his family, friends and life in general. He had an awesome sense of humor and a heart as big as it could be. He touched so many lives in his too short time here on earth and he will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with Carol, all three girls and little Addie, as well as Ted and Lene. Loveya all,

“ Mikey was so sweet and so cute. His emails would have the subject line, “Hey Girl” and he would always begin with a, “Hi, cuz!” or “How are you doing sweets?”. When Mikey would ask about my husband he’d say, “How’s that hubby?” So light. So fun. Always made me smile. When I asked Michael about asking everyone to bring a thank you and having some type of thank you for his mom and dad at Yulich reunion (for all the years of devotion they have given to the annual event) his reply, “Just folks showing up would be thanks enough for my parents.” Mikey always knew how wonderful his folks are and he always appreciated them. His girls (ALL of them) know how much love their husband/dad/son/grandfather had for them and how proud he was of all of them. I am so sorry for you. For all.

“ No words can I gather to put how I feel. Mike Yulich, I love you and miss you. My last words to him was that I loved him. He said "I love you too Paulie". With that, I know things are gonna be for me, OK! You will be missed.
