

Mikeal Anthony Santoyo Sr.

July 8, 1966 - September 20, 2025

Mikeal Anthony Santoyo Sr., 59, passed away on Saturday, September 20, 2025, at Owensboro Health Regional Hospital in Owensboro, KY. Born and raised in Kansas City, KS, Mikeal was a proud graduate of Turner High School. He later relocated to Kentucky but always carried his Kansas roots. For 36 years, Mike lived out his lifelong dream as a professional wrestler, captivating audiences across the country as “Madd Mexx.” His passion for entertaining and connecting with people left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him. He is survived by his loving wife, Nina Ann Santoyo; his sons, Mikeal Santoyo Jr., Charles (Clorissa) Barbosa, and Xavier Barbosa; his cherished granddaughters, Emerald and Symira Barbosa; his sisters, Lucy (Max) Maldonado and Marylou Santoyo-Vasquez; and his brother, Joe (Linda Pendleton) Santoyo. Mike was preceded in death by his parents, Bessie and Joe Santoyo; his siblings, Linda Santoyo, Leo Mark Santoyo, and Paul John Santoyo; and his son, Joseph Santoyo. He will be laid to rest beside his parents in a private graveside service at Maple Hill Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

A REAL MAN CAN'T STAND SEEING HIS WOMAN HURT. HE'S CAREFUL WITH HIS DECISIONS AND ACTIONS, SO HE NEVER HAS TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR HER PAIN.

“ I'm so sorry I didn't know he passed. I would've been there. I will deeply miss him. I can't believe I talked to him just days before. Te voy extraño amigo. Siempre vivirás en mi corazón. ”
