“ *Debbie and Bob,
Chris just called me today to tell me of your mom's passing, I am so sorry I couldn't be there for you! Your mom was a jewel and a great friend and comfort to my mom when they were together at Shawnee Gardens and before. I hope that we will still stay in touch although all our "connections" are gone, you will always be family to me. That is such a great picture of your mom, she was beautiful inside and out! Love you all, Janet*

“ *Dear Debbie,
From looking at your mom's smile, I can see her spirit and beauty in you!
What a legacy she has left. I imagine those who know you both have mentioned many times how much the two of you are alike.
I am saddened by your loss, but know you treasure the memories.
Fondly,
Suzie Turner, Rolling Ridge counselor*

“ Debbie and Jay and all the family., I remember Nadine as a loving, happy and a smile on her face. There was a party at Turner Rec Center that Mom and I went to. We talked about how happy she was. Love to her in her special time. And to remember the good days will bring you joy. Remember how the Oliver family always stood together... mad or not.. Just think of them all in heaven looking down over us.... in the trees, wind and the sun. There are smiles everywhere.

Bless you all. Our families are thinking of you and Nadine.
