The video was beautiful- I have a million memories of Nancy over the years from transplant, Camp Chimer, and from the last decade at the dialysis center - I was a Nurse Practitioner at that unit and had followed her for years- she was just a champion for other patients... loved her smile ... we had a special bond.. I had lost touch past 1.5 years but I'm so happy she made to Italy .. I knew that was a big goal of hers... rest now Nancy and look out for all of us!! ✕○

“ Ms. Nancy worked at my facility before she passed. I live there still, and her memory seems lost. I know some people remember her and all she did, but it really doesn't feel like it. I miss her a lot. I was at a different placement when she passed, but I remember finding out. I balled my eyes out for a long time. I miss her. May she rest easy... Love, SS

“ For a few years before her passing, she worked at a group home for girls. I was one of those girls. This wonderful, kind, caring, happy woman gave me hope when I had none. For that, there is nothing I can ever do to repay her in this life or the next. When she looks at us, I know she is looking down from a beautiful paradise surrounded by everyone she has loved. When she looks down at me she continues to give me hope, and the Gods have blessed her. για πάντα, υπέροχο!
