“ I still remember being at your funeral and I saw a vision of you dancing up on that stage, playing air guitar and trying to make everyone smile. That's who you were and that's who you'll always be. My big brother just trying to make everything light and fun and carefree. I've never met a more gentle and loving soul. I always wished I could take your pain away, and I hope you're spending every moment in peace and bliss. That's all I ever wanted for you, the happiness you worked so hard to bring to everyone around you. I hope you have that. I love you always.

“ I just want to say that growing up with Nick as one of my closest friends, i know how kind hearted and how much of a genuinely good guy he was.. and how hard it mustve been for 1 wonderful, and strong woman to provide such an amazing childhood and raise such a good guy all on her own... I know this is for memories of nick, (and there are so many id like to post) but Nick was such an amazing person because of you Dorothy Krueger... when it comes to strong, loving mothers who raise their children right, Dorothy, you take the cake!!! And i had a super star Mother myself so i dont say that lightly... You did it all by yourself, and I just want to thank you for being such a great Mother and raising such an amazing lifelong friend.... I hope you know how awesome you truly are. Thank you for being you Dorothy, and Nick, until we meet again ill think of the good times we had every day of my life buddy... Thanks for being a true friend.
