“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Nina's passing. I was lucky enough to be one of the girls group at the lake of the Ozarks. It was through this group of lovely ladies that I met Nina. Nina was the most generous and kind person that I have ever met. Whether it was food, drink or just chipping in with chores, she was there every single time. It did not matter what she was doing, she would stop and offer her assistance.

On a recent girls group outing we all met up at a rental home in Treasure Island Florida. Nina and I spent hours and hours searching for sand dollars. Nina had a keen eye for anything in the water! On the last day Nina and I laid out our shells and our hard earned sand dollars. When it came time to pack up, all of mine were gone! Nina sensed my distress and gave me half of hers without a second thought.

I thank God for the opportunity to have met Nina and be one of her friends. I will miss her dearly. God speed Nina, until we meet again.

“ I met Nina over 20 years ago playing racquetball. She soon became one of my very best friends.
Nina was the most generous person in the world! Nina loved to shop and buy everything for everyone. She would not take NO for an answer.
Our special time was our yearly girls weekend at the lake.
Nina would drive down early with larie, open the cabin. Fill the cabinets with snacks.
Blow up all the new rafts she brought down.
Catch some fish and have our dinner on the table by nightfall.
Nina's smile would light up a room. Her laughter, contagious. Never knew a stranger. Strong in her faith. Listened to great music. Loved her family. Loved to laugh, work, and play. Loved her friends.
I thank god I got to love Nina, and be loved by Nina. I will miss you my friend.
She was one of a kind, and one of the kindest!
Thank you Nina for your love, laughter, and above all your unwavering friendship.
I love you,

I first met Nina at the annual girls lake trip to the Ozarks. From the moment I met her I felt like we had been friends forever. We both liked to fish and she would always tie hooks or lures on for me because she was a pro at it! Once we all met up for dinner and afterwards she opened her trunk and there were the fish she caught that day in a cooler. LOL. Her laughter was contagious and her smile welcoming. As commented on earlier, she was extremely generous and insisted on paying for ALOT! "No" was not in vocabulary. I will miss you greatly Nina ❤️
