

Olga Lunday

July 5, 1921 - May 16, 2014

Olga Lunday, a beloved mother, grandmother and great-mother, formerly of Kansas City, KS, passed away on Friday, May 16, 2014 at the Frankfort Community Care Home in Frankfort, KS at the age of 92. Olga was born the daughter of Frederick and Mary Kozelle on July 5, 1921 in Kansas City, KS. She is survived by her loving daughters, Helen Ruth Martin and Patricia O'Grady and her husband Tom; six grandchildren, Laura J. (Martin) Steging, Leslie L. (Martin) Camargo, William Andrew Martin, John A. O'Grady, Chaseley S. (O'Grady) Chambert, Katie E. (O'Grady) Davis and 15 great-grandchildren. Olga was preceded in death by her beloved husband Charles Andrew Lunday, Jr. A graveside service for Olga will be held on Monday at 3:00 PM, May 19, 2014 at the Maple Hill Cemetery, Kansas City, KS. Charles and Olga were married on April 26, 1941. They were married for nearly 65 years until Charles' death in 2006. They lived in Kansas City, KS until they retired and moved to northern Arkansas. Olga was a homemaker and worked at the Oak Grove Elementary School, Kansas City, in the cafeteria for a few years. Olga developed a love for gardening and cooking. Her vegetable gardens were always full of fresh tomatoes. Her taco's and enchilada's were always popular. On special occasions and holidays, she would make povitica which was cherished by family and friends alike. Memorial contributions can be made in Olga's memory to the Frankfort Community Care Home, 510 N. Walnut St, Frankfort, KS 66427.
