Patti and husband visited us there/ We lost touch thru the years but one day from Arizona a letter came with a picture of Baby Wayne. She was so proud. “ There are a number of ways to leave this world. On the back of a motorcycle, going way too fast, or suddenly in a recliner, are a couple. But those ways are hard on surviving family who don't get a chance to say goodbye. Almost as bad is laying in a bed unresponsive and staring at a ceiling for months. My step-mother of 45 years visited my home a month ago, attended her grandsons' basketball games, and I talked to her on the phone in her Kansas City hospital room 10 days ago. A few days later she took an unexpected turn. On Wednesday my sons and I dropped everything to drive to KC to say our goodbyes. Before we arrived back in Hutchinson that evening, I had lost my step-mother, my sons and their cousins lost a grandmother, my bother lost his mom, and my dad lost his wife. I'm at peace with it. I thank God for the gift of allowing my family to say goodbye to this incredible woman.
