I am blessed to have so many wonderful memories of and with Aunt Pat. When I was little especially, What a strong, straight forward and bold beautiful woman she was. Always there for her family. My mother Kay and aunt Pat was two of the closest sisters I have ever seen. She was someone that placed her footprints on my heart at an extremely young age. Which will never leave. One thing about it, she has her wings like eagles now. She has made her journey to heaven. I love and already miss her dearly. There are no words to explain the pain I know her children, grandchildren, husband, and all of our family is going through. My thoughts, condolences, and prayers are with everyone.
