“ I remember when Paul became engaged to my Aunt Norma he had a convertible which I thought was his, but whether it was his or not was not an issue. I just remember when he came to piick up Norma he would take anyone who wanted a ride in that beautiful car. He said hop in and there we would go driving down the streets of Argentine, hair blowing, thinking we were really special. Now Notma not so much. He was a kind and loving man.
