“ Oh, so sad! She was such a fun coworker at Epoch. Always nice and full of great stories and advice. I was just thinking of her the other day, she always told me to be sure to take care of my skin, especially my neck, so I wouldn't get a waddle! She will be missed!!

“ One of the things I remember best about Paulette was her gift for telling stories. Every time we came together she had a memorable moment that she unfolded in such a way that it would stay with you for some time. Her sheer joy of sharing these experiences was extraordinary. The butterfly story was the best. Her love for her family was her legacy to her life. She was there to help whenever anyone was sick or needed a hand. She had a determination to dive right in and make things easier for others. I will remember her smile and spirit evermore.

“ I worked with Paulette at Memories and we became good friends. I just spoke with her recently and we were going to get together. I have so many good memories of her, it would be hard to say my favorite. She was such a special person. I am so sorry that I was not able to get together with her like we had planned. I stopped by to surprise her, but she didnt answer her door and I was so bummed. My prayers go out to her kids whom I know she loved with all her heart. Laura Aldridge Hutson
