“ Share a memory of Pauline Castle or send condolences to the family. I felt it important to convey, while Pauline was vibrant and heard strong, it was the quality of her heart, if she was aware you needed her, she absolutely used any reliable resource to assist with whatever you're issue. For me it was over the course of three different family members at their time of death. This lady taught me the neighborly thing to do when your friends/family/ neighbors were grieving. Presence, volunteer anywhere from clean up to answer phones, with the greatest lesson, FOOD! In 2014 I had serious rib injury and Pierson park was packed. I was lucky to crawl. I woke this poor woman up who was completely unaware that was the night of the show, she pulled herself out of bed, got out the chairs, and I absolutely could not have had the most perfect view with the privacy and quaint serene environment to have a memory to last the rest of my life. We met in 1972, neighbors, she had a beauty salon, and it was like she was making up for my families hardships, mostly for to my moms illness, Pauline's accident is probably the only way God could catch her, she's still there fighting, helping, and inspiring with her strong beliefs and faith she shared with so many! It was an honor knowing her entire family! Raise a glass to both Mr. and Mrs. Homer Castle, reunited!
