“ Mom you were the most strongest person I have ever known. There will be no more pain for you now and I take such great comfort knowing that; you suffered so much for so long, the dove I chose for is for your peace now. I will miss you with everything that I am. I will miss your gentle, calming, loving, caring and selflessness spirit. You were my life so long. I am lost without you..., but for you mom, I will go on; with you in my heart and good memories always in my thoughts, as I know you would want me to. I was blessed to have you as my mother and I'm happy your spirit will be here at home with me always. I will talk to often, as I always have when you were here. You are with dad now and Deb, Sharon, and aunt Mae which I am sure all met you and welcomed you home. Please tell them I love them. I have told you everyday I loved you and you knew it. I love you! ..I love you!... I love you!!!!
