“ I have so many memories of Peggy, and she was like my own sister.....not and "in law." I always admired her, she was always so soft spoken and so very sweet. Jack, was friends with all of their family, and he said they were like his family. I have a special memory of both Peggy and Jack. After Jack retired, and they moved to their place with the pond of that big old "bent tree." Inside the house, we were sitting talking, and suddenly, Jack looked over at Peggy, and he said, " You know, she is more beautiful now than she ever was." She blushed, and got a big smile on her face. They were truly a happy couple. I miss both of them so much. But I was always grateful, that Jack found a jewel like Peggy Lou. I know you two are together right now. Hope to see you both one of these days. My Love, Helen (Harris) Millican.
