“ Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. Psalm 25: 1

*No words could ever express my deepest heart felt love and sympathy for the entire DeLeon and Carrillo family during this time of loss. Although it may not feel like it now, this is a celebration of Mr. Phillip's life and amazing legacy. To you my loving family I would say: for understanding, lean on your faith, live by Gramps' example of servitude toward the Lord and love each other as he loved all of you. What a blessing to have known him. With love,

“ Mr. Phillip always had a smile. He loved Mrs. Josie and all his family. Since the Deas family has known him, he always had an encouraging word and shared his love and passion for God. It was a blessing to be in his presence, he simply loved people and wanted everyone he met to know his God. What a legacy to have a life that glorified God and to leave all these sparks of fire to carry on that life for God.

May your hearts be comforted by the blessed memories of your loving earthly father who taught you to love the Heavenly Father.

“ To: Renie, P.J., Mario and your families: My heart is sending love during this difficult time. Your dad was special in many ways and he will be remembered that way by all who knew him. Although many years have passed I still remember how as a child & adolescent he always made me laugh with funny stories and his antics. I loved that in him. God is getting a good helper.
